SENATOR CLEO FIELDS' CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN RAISES OVER $600,000 IN 6 WEEKS FUELED BY LOUISIANA DONORS

District 6, Louisiana – April 4, 2024 – Senator Cleo Fields, candidate for the District 6 Congressional seat, has announced a remarkable fundraising achievement just six weeks into his campaign. With a total of over $600,000 raised, averaging an impressive $100,000 per week, Senator Fields' campaign has seen overwhelming support from Louisiana donors.

What makes this fundraising effort even more significant is the fact that over 95% of the donors are from Louisiana, showcasing the deep-rooted support Senator Fields enjoys within the state.

As the campaign eagerly awaits the outcome of the courts' review of the newly drawn district boundaries, it is a poignant reminder that April 4th marks the anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s assassination. Dr. King's tireless advocacy for voting rights and equality resonates strongly with Senator Fields' commitment to ensuring fair representation for all Louisianans.

In his historic 1957 speech, "Give Us The Ballot," Dr. King emphasized the importance of voting rights and fair representation. Senator Fields is dedicated to honoring Dr. King's legacy by utilizing the generous resources of his donors to spread a message of prioritizing Louisiana families.

Senator Fields' campaign focuses on vital issues such as championing education, expanding the minimum wage, creating jobs, ensuring community safety, and bridging the gap in rural communities.

With unwavering dedication, Senator Fields looks forward to continuing his campaign and working tirelessly to put Louisiana families first.
